christmas 2011

“A book connects you to the universe like a cell phone connects you to the Internet,” a teacher tells his class, reminding them that it only works if your battery’s not dead. Seeing their classmates’ disinterest in their school’s summer reading list, three students hatch a plan to recharge the batteries, and get people excited about Harper Lee’s classic.

Isla and the Happily Ever After Stephanie Perkins

Once again, Stephanie Perkins charms readers with a tale of true love, family drama, and being true to oneself - set against the backdrop of New York, Paris, and Barcelona.
